

Wyoming State Steel Challenge Championship

Great Divide Shooting Association will be hosting the 2011 Wyoming State Steel Challenge Championship at the Rawlins Outdoor Shooting Complex 1 1/2 miles north of Rawlins on Hwy 287.

July 16th and 17th, 2011

Shooters meeting at 8:00 a.m. shoot at 8:30 both days

All Steel Challenge and Rawlins Outdoor Shooting Complex safety rules apply. This match is a Sanctioned Steel Challenge match pending our membership acceptance. You may shoot up to two guns per day for a total of 4 guns, only the first center-fire and first rim-fire handgun will be eligible for awards. Awards depend on the number of contestants. There will also be a fun category for those not familiar or equipped for this kind of shoot but want to see what it is all about or those wanting to shoot a gun that SCSA does not have a division for example a 10/22 rifle, lever action cowboy rifle, a pistol with a laser grip, or any other gun approved for normal pistol steel shooting there will not be any awards for this category, holsters not required for fun shoot. This contest will be limited to 90 guns per day. Match Entry Fees: $55.00 for main match, Juniors (10-17): $35.00, entry fee includes daily range fee, SCSA fee and one lunch, additional lunches $5.00. Additional guns are $20.00 each up to 3 additional guns. Fun shoot is $20.00.

Entries received after June 25th add $20.00 late fee to entry total. Awards will be Sunday when all shooting is complete and scores are added, need not be present for awards we can mail it to you.
